(A) The parties to this Agreement hereby recognize the Company's obligations in its contracts with the Government pertaining to security, security clearances, and access to Government-managed property, and agree that nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to place the Company in violation of its contracts and/or security agreements with the Government.

(B) In the event that the U.S. Military Service or other Government Agency duly concerned with security regulations or operations on Government-managed property, advises the Company that any employee in the Union bargaining unit is restricted from access to Government-managed property, or restricted from work on or access to classified information and material, the Union agrees that such action as the Company may take pursuant to its contractual and/or security obligations to the Government will not be contested, nor will such action be a subject of the grievance procedure contained in Article 3 of this Agreement.

At which time, if the clearance is not awarded by the proper authorities, the employee will be subject to termination at the sole discretion of the Company. Said twelve (12) month provision may be extended on a case-by case basis.

During the process of a security clearance renewal or periodic investigation as required by the Department of Defense (DOD) or other agencies of the United States government an employee's clearance is withdrawn, the employee's employment under the terms of this agreement will continue for up to twelve (12) months provided the clearance is still being processed. In the event that the required clearance is not granted within those twelve (12) months the other provisions of this Article 1, Section 7 will apply. This period may be extended on a case-by-case basis.

It is understood that there shall be no liability on the part of the Company or the Union for any release growing out of the denial of clearance and/or unescorted entry authorization by the United States Government and/or non-receipt of a required clearance. Failure for whatever circumstances to meet the above requirements shall not be a cause of action under the Grievance and Arbitration provisions contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2

UNION - COMPANY RELATIONS

Section 1- Union Stewards

(A) Upon execution of this Agreement, the Union shall promptly furnish the Company President or his designee, in writing, the name(s) of the Union Steward(s). Thereafter, the Union shall promptly advise the Company President or his designee, in writing, of any change in Stewards. No Steward will be recognized as such by the Company prior to receipt of written notice of notification. From among the bargaining unit employees employed by the Company at this location, the Union will designate and the Company will recognize not more than two (2) Union Stewards to serve as the Union's agents in the representation of employees.

After notification to the Company President or his designee, the Union will appoint an Alternate Steward (within the assigned work area) who will only serve in the absence of the elected steward. Union Stewards shall be selected to represent the employee in the following work areas: Transient Alert.

(B) Except as otherwise specifically provided for in the Agreement, union stewards shall not be compensated by the Company for their duties on behalf of the Union. Compensation shall be governed by the following rules:

1. Arbitrations – Each party shall be responsible to compensate their respective representatives and any persons they select to attend such meetings.

2. Meetings scheduled at the unilateral request of the Union – the Union shall compensate all attendees from the Union. Such meetings involve steward training, Union Elections, Union Conferences, etc.
 3. Meetings scheduled at the unilateral request of the Company – The Company shall compensate all attendees from the Union. Such meetings involve:
 - a. Periodic or special communications meetings called by management for the purpose of communications of Company events, policies or plans.
 - b. Shop Stewards called in by the Company when requested by an employee to be present for investigations that may result in discipline. When requested by the employee, the Company will notify the shop steward on duty prior to starting the investigation.
 - c. To discuss safety hazards and/or make safety recommendations to the management of his/her area.
- (C) With prior notice to and with permission of the Union Steward's Site Manager and subject to other provisions of this agreement, the Union Steward shall be authorized to meet with employees to respond to requests, complaints, and/or grievances/grievance investigations on Company time. The Company shall be obligated to relieve from duty and compensate at straight time rates the Steward(s) involved in these activities.
- (D) The scope of the Steward's activities on Company time shall be limited to the following:
- 1) To consult with an employee regarding the presentation of a request or clarification concerning this Agreement, complaint, or grievance which the employee desires the Steward to be present.
 - 2) To investigate a complaint or grievance of record before presentation.
 - 3) To present a request concerning this Agreement, complaint, or grievance to an employee's Supervisor in an attempt to settle the matter for the employee or group of employees who may be similarly affected.
 - 4) For discussions with another Steward or the authorized Business Representative of the Union on employee complaints or grievances or on matters arising out of the application of this Agreement.
- (E) It is agreed that a Steward may receive, but not solicit, grievances from employees. For purpose of this agreement, the term "solicit" means the Steward will receive grievances from employees and not petition for grievances. However, this does not limit the Steward from notifying the employee(s) that he/she has been grieved due to a breach or violation of this agreement. The Union recognizes and agrees that a Steward will carry out his/her duties with a minimum of interference with the orderly progress of Company work. Where necessary, the Steward's work schedule or assignment will be adjusted where practical, to allow for time to conduct Company-Union business as specified below:

- 1) The parties agree that the Union Official as defined in Article 3, Section 1(B) for the affected employee may attend the grievance meeting. It is also agreed that the investigation of grievances is the primary role of the Steward.

Section 2 - Business Representatives and Union Officials

Full time representatives of the Union shall have access to the Company's operations for the purpose of contacting Stewards regarding employee Complaints or grievances or matters arising out of the application of this Agreement. Such visits shall be subject to such regulations as may be made from time to time by the Company, the U.S. Military Services, and other government agencies. It is agreed that the Company will not impose regulations, which will render ineffective the intent of this provision.

Prior to entering the Company's operations, the Business Representative shall notify the President, M-E JV2 LLC, or his/her designee on the date and time he/she will be on the facility. While in Company areas requiring badging, the Union Representative(s) shall be escorted at all times by a Company representative that has been designated by the Site Manager. The Union Representative(s) must remain in non-work areas unless in the investigation of a grievance, his/their presence in a non-working area is considered to be essential as decided by the President, M-E JV2 LLC, or his designee. The failure of any Union Representative(s) to follow the procedures outlined above will be considered just cause to permanently bar said Representative(s) from the premises.

Section 3 - Bulletin Boards and Posting Notices

(A) It is agreed that the Union will be permitted, in the work area, to post on one bulletin board provided by the Company.

- 1) Notices of Union recreational affairs.
- 2) Notices of Union elections and election results.
- 3) Notices of Union appointments.
- 4) Notices of Union meetings.
- 5) Other notices as mutually agreed to by the parties.

Any Company data (i.e. seniority lists, or any Company information that is stamped Proprietary, Confidential, or Company Private, etc.) furnished to the Union needs to be protected as Company proprietary information and cannot be given to outside third parties. Information provided to the Union shall not be duplicated. The Union bulletin board will be secured and locked at all times and the keys to the bulletin boards will be kept in the possession of the Company. A Union Steward shall also have a key to the bulletin board. Violations of the above will lead to dismissal if the information is released/duplicated to an outside third party by a Union Steward/Employee and permanent disbarment from Company property if released/duplicated by a full time Union Representative.

The Union will be afforded a total of one (1) locked 3ft. by 4ft. foot bulletin boards clearly identified as "Union Business" where only Union notices will be displayed. Shop Stewards will have full access to the Union Bulletin Board to post notices in accordance with the provisions contained herein.

Said bulletin boards will be located in Hangar #4.

Section 4 - Information Provided to the Union

- (A) The Company will furnish to the Union Business Representative information, as required by law.
- (B) In the event of an employee being suspended or terminated, the Company will notify the appropriate Shop Steward prior to, or on the day of the action.

ARTICLE 3

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

Section 1 - Definitions

- A. Grievance – The term grievance as used in this Agreement is a claim involving the interpretation, application or claim of breach or violation of applicable provision(s) of this Agreement that the Company or an employee has not been able to adjust. The grievance must identify the applicable provision(s) of the Agreement that is claimed to have breached or violated and the remedy sought.
- B. All references and procedures in this Article which refer to “employee” grievances refer to the Company as well, as the Company also has the right to file a grievance under this Article.
- C. Union Official – The term Union Official as used in this agreement means any M-E JV2 LLC personnel elected to hold a Local Lodge 24 Executive Board position.
- D. Repeat Grievance – If a grievance has been previously settled and a repeat grievance on the same issue is filed, the repeat grievance will go directly to Step Two.

Section 2 - Grievance Procedure

- Step One The Parties agree that most issues can be successfully resolved by open discussion at the lowest possible level between the employee, the supervisor, and the Site Manager. Any employee with a complaint or issue should contact the appropriate supervisor within seven (7) business days after the employee had knowledge or should have had knowledge of the alleged occurrence in order to discuss and attempt to resolve the issue. Both parties will make every effort to resolve the issue. The employee may have his/her Union Business Representative and a Steward and a Union Official and any witnesses deemed necessary by the Union who will give first hand testimony present if desired. The Company shall inform the employee of the right to have a Union Representative present prior to the start of any investigation meeting that could lead to discipline, however no settlement shall be made without the presence of a Union Official or Steward. If the issue remains unresolved, the grievance shall be reduced to writing by submission of a grievance form. If the issue is resolved at the lowest level, the settlement results shall be written on a grievance form and signed by the parties. If the issue remains unresolved, it will be reduced to writing for step 2 of the grievance procedure.

Any grievance settlements at Step One of the grievance process, whether by concession, withdrawal, settlement agreement or resolution actions or a failure of either party to abide by the time limits of this section, shall not constitute a precedent binding the Company or the Union, unless the parties agree, in writing that such settlement shall set a precedent binding on future grievances.

Step Two If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled as outlined in Step One, a written grievance may then be presented no later than seven (7) working days to the Company or his designee after notification that the issue was not resolved at Step One. The Company President or his designated representative shall meet with the Union Business Representative and Grievant and Stewards and a Union official and any witness deemed necessary by the union who will give first hand testimony in an attempt to resolve the matter. The Company President or his designated representative shall render a written decision thereon within seven (7) working days after said meeting/appeal. If a settlement is reached, it will be reduced to written form and the matter shall be considered closed. If the Company President or his designee fails to provide a written decision within this time limit, the grievance remedy shall be advanced to the next step of this procedure.

Any grievance settlements at Step Two of the grievance process, whether by concession, withdrawal, settlement agreement or resolution actions or a failure of either party to abide by the time limits of this section, shall not constitute a precedent binding the Company or the Union, unless the parties agree, in writing that such settlement shall set a precedent binding on future grievances.

If the parties fail to resolve the grievance as outlined in Step Two, the Union or the Company may appeal the grievance to arbitration within thirty (30) calendar days after written decision of Step Two.

Grievances arising out of a suspension without pay or a discharge shall be submitted directly to Step Two described in Section 2 herein. Should the Union elect to pursue such a grievance, the written grievance signed by the employee must be submitted to the Company President or designee within seven (7) working days of the effective date of the action. If a written grievance is not submitted to the Company President or designee within seven (7) working days of the effective date of the action, the right of the employee or Union to grieve the action is waived and no further action can be taken thereon. Such failure to act timely shall not set a precedent binding upon the Union or the Company for future grievances.

It is understood that a Union Official or Steward may file grievances on behalf of the Union's interest under this agreement. Therefore, if a grievance pertains to the Company's interpretation of the intent and purpose of the application of a specific article and section of this agreement that has wide bargaining unit effect, the grievance may be filed by a Union Official on behalf of the Union. Further, if a grievance relates to policy and affects numerous employees, the grievance shall be consolidated and filed by the Steward on behalf of the group of employees.

(A) If the two parties' representatives are unable to reach a settlement; either party may request a list of qualified arbitrators from the United States Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service within thirty (30) calendar days of the written decision and notify the other party of such request. The request shall be for a list of seven (7) arbitrators. The Union and the Company shall alternately strike one name from such list (the right to strike the first name having been determined by lot) until only one name remains and that person shall be the arbitrator.

(B) It is understood that the time limits specified herein may be extended by mutual written agreement of the parties.

(C) The Company and the Union may mutually agree to combine the grievance of an employee and other similarly affected employee's in order to eliminate the need for multiple filings of grievances. If no other Agreement on this issue is reached, either party may request an Arbitrator to combine the grievances and the Arbitrator's decision is final.

(D) The Company and the Union may mutually agree in writing to waive any prior step of the grievance procedure and proceed directly to Step Two of the grievance procedure as it is described in Section 2 of this section.

(E) The Union shall have authority, with respect to any employee covered by this Agreement, to decline to process a grievance, complaint, or dispute if in the judgment of the Union such grievance or dispute lacks merit or justification under the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or has been adjusted or justified under the terms of the Agreement to the satisfaction of the Union.

(F) It is mutually agreed that should an employee be unavailable to sign a grievance form and deliver it to the Company within the time limits specified in Steps One and Two of the grievance procedure, the Union may forward the grievance unsigned.

(G) No employee shall be discharged, suspended or otherwise disciplined without just or sufficient cause.

Any employee, who had been discharged, or suspended, shall be granted an interview with his Union Official before he/she is required to leave the premises when practical.

In all cases involving discharge, demotion or other discipline, the employee involved and the Union Official shall be notified in writing of the action and the reason for such action.

Section 3 – Arbitration

(A) The parties' representatives shall make the necessary arrangements to arbitrate the grievance. In the event the parties' representatives are unable to agree upon the issue, the arbitrator shall determine the issue.

(B) The arbitrator shall have the authority to determine, the rules of evidence and procedure and to adjourn or continue the hearing from time to time. All expenses incurred by the arbitrator including the fee and expenses which he authorized in connection with the arbitration, shall be shared equally by the parties. Costs incurred by the respective parties for their witness(es) shall be borne by the respective party.

(C) This Agreement constitutes a contract between the parties which shall be interpreted and applied by the parties and by the arbitrator in the same manner as any other contract under the laws of the land. The function and purpose of the arbitrator is to determine disputed interpretation of terms actually found in the Agreement, or to determine disputed facts upon which the application of the Agreement depends. The arbitrator shall have the authority to interpret and apply the provisions of this agreement. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to amend or modify this Agreement or to establish new terms and conditions of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be in writing and shall not be made until both parties have had reasonable opportunity to present their case, together with oral arguments. The parties shall file post hearing briefs within thirty (30) days of the hearing. The thirty (30) day requirement may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Said decision shall be given not later than thirty (30) days after the date the post hearing briefs are received by the arbitrator. It is understood and agreed that a decision of the arbitrator made in accordance with the requirements hereof shall be final and binding on both parties and the employee(s).

(D) The parties will conduct arbitration cases at a location within twenty-five miles of Joint Base Andrews.

ARTICLE 4

SENIORITY

Section 1 - Basis of Seniority and Establishment of Seniority Rights

(A) Probationary Period

All employees shall be considered probationary employees for the first sixty (60) working days of active employment; may be extended by mutual agreement between the Parties. During this period, all new hires will be required to complete a union orientation not to exceed thirty (30) minutes in duration per session. Throughout this period, supervision will evaluate the probationary employee as to such factors as, but not limited to, work habits, willingness to accept varied work assignments and training, safety, productivity, quality of work, attendance, and ability to work with others. Upon completion of his/her probationary period, the employee will become a regular employee whose seniority will be retroactive to his/her first day of employment.
